Call 620.275.1199 Wednesday, December 1, after 7 p.m. for the time of your first match or check the YMCA of Southwest Kansas website for brackets.
Matches will start at 1 p.m. on Friday, December 3. Local players requested to play on Friday night, possibly Thursday. Those traveling from out of town should write and include with entry form if you cannot play Friday night. We will try our best to work around your schedule, but you must play early Saturday morning!

Rules:

USRA rules apply. Single elimination with a consolation bracket if six or more. Under six entries will play a round robin format. All divisions will play best 2 out of 3 games – first 2 games to 15, tiebreaker to 11. All match losers for Open Divisions must referee the following match, all other divisions winners must referee the following match, find a suitable sub, or forfeit. We will try not to schedule back-to-back matches, but if you are in more than one bracket, no guarantees. Lensed eye guards required! For doubles, teams will play in the division with highest ranking player. Tournament Director reserves the right to reclassify players.

CASH PRIZES: ALL division winners will receive $100 for first place. If more than eight entries, prize money goes up and we pay the top three and consolation winner!
Pro Open, Amateur Open, and Elite will win more ($250 or more) depending on the number of entries.
On divisions with less, we might only pay top two. This is the discretion of the Tournament Director.

Hospitality:

Donuts, fruit and juice will be provided for breakfast Saturday and Sunday morning. Gatorade and tea will be provided throughout the tournament. Lunch will be provided Saturday and Sunday. Dinner will be provided Saturday evening with door prizes given away. Friday night dinner will be served if full slate of matches are scheduled. Non-tournament players will be required to pay for each meal. Please honor this request. Participants will also be allowed to utilize the adult locker-rooms and towel services all weekend. Don't miss out on the best racquetball tournament you will ever attend for food, fun and fellowship!
